Drum Lessons

My name is Dan Coppock and I am a peripatetic drum teacher. I achieved grade 8 at the age of 14 then went on to achieve a Higher B Tech National Diploma at the Academy of Contemporary Music (Guildford) at the age of 17. After this I attended university a year early and achieved a BA Joint Honours Degree in Music and Popular Music at the age of 20. I have since been teaching drums in various schools for 9 years, this giving me a wide range of teaching experience allowing me to achieve a high level of success in exams.

Lessons are shared, they are 20 minutes long and work on a rotation system in school time.

Maximum 2 pupils per lesson.

The weekly lessons you pay for depends on how many the school calendar allows, therefore lessons do not occur every week of the term.

Drumsticks and music will eventually be required and entry for exams is encouraged but not essential.

The cost of each lesson is £6.60 and an invoice for the total amount of lessons will be sent out at the start of each full term.

For example x11 lessons for a full term would be £72.60

Spaces are very limited so will have to be done on a first come first served basis.

If your child would like to start lessons then please feel free to contact me on the details provided at the top of the letter.

Kind Regards,

Dan Coppock
